

M'STOCKER IS IN BY AUTHORITY.

Commissioned Collector-General of Customs.

J. F. CLAY DEPUTY COLLECTOR

L. K. McGrew, Supt. Postal Savings Bank.

Changes Made Today—No Successor to McGrew Named—Faithfulness Rewarded.

Frank B. McStocker will assume the duties of Collector-General of Customs, succeeding James B. Castle, resigned. He was strongly recommended for the position by the retiring Collector-General on account of his capability. He has been Deputy Collector of the port since the present Government came into power, and has given great satisfaction to the department and the business community.

COLLECTOR-GENERAL M'STOCKER

Mr. McStocker is a native of Philadelphia, and after receiving his education in one of the military academies in Pennsylvania, he entered the service of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company as a cadet, and was assigned to one of the steamers running between San Francisco and Panama.

On retiring from the sea Mr. McStocker took up his residence in San Francisco and immediately became identified with local politics. He was appointed to positions in the Customs House and Post Office in San Francisco and acceptably filled them until 1883, when he resigned and came to Honolulu. He entered the Customs Service here about 12 years ago, holding the position of Storekeeper, until Mr. Castle was appointed Collector-General, at which time he was promoted to the Deputyship, made vacant by the retirement of Mr. Boardman. He is prominent in politics here, and is looked upon as a leader. He was the organizer of the Citizens' Guard here, and has the reputation of looking after his friends. When the Association Club was organized and some one was needed to bring order out of chaos, F. B. McStocker was made chairman of the Executive Committee, at whose hands the matter of reorganization was satisfactorily accomplished.

J. Fred Clay, who succeeds Mr. McStocker as Deputy Collector, came here from New Zealand some years ago. When the Kahuku Plantation was organized he was made bookkeeper, remaining there until 1894, when he resigned and came to Honolulu and purchased a half interest with F. L. Hoogs in the Paradise of the Pacific. After the revolution of 1895 Mr. Hoogs disposed of his interest to Mr. Hoogs and was afterwards appointed on the clerical force in the Customs House. When Mr. Johnson retired from the Post Office Savings Bank Mr. Clay was appointed Superintendent to succeed him. His duties as Deputy Collector will not be altogether new to him, as his experience in the other departments of the office frequently brought him in contact with Mr. McStocker. He is an excellent accountant, thoroughly upright and well qualified for the place. The vacancy in the Post Office, caused by Mr. Clay's retirement, will be filled by Louis K. McGrew, who, until yesterday, was assistant to Deputy Collector McStocker. This is a promotion for Mr. McGrew, and the position is one which he is abundantly qualified to fill. No successor has been yet named to take Mr. McGrew's place in the Customs House, and no appointment will be made until the Collector-General and his Deputy have time to consider.

Owing to over-crowding and bad ventilation, the air of a school room is often close and impure, and teachers and pupils frequently suffer from lung and throat troubles. To all such we would say, try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For coughs, colds, weak lungs and bronchial troubles no other remedy can compare with it. Says A. C. Freed, Superintendent of Schools, Prairie Depot, Ohio: "Having some knowledge of the efficacy of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, I have no hesitation in recommending it to all who suffer from coughs, lung troubles, etc." For sale by all druggists and dealers, Benson, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaiian Islands.
